INDIE ROCK VETERAN MONIQUE ORTIZ GETS “DAPPER” IN DANCE MUSIC DEBUT

APRIL 8 2024 – dPulse Recordings is pleased to announce the forthcoming release of “Dapper”, the new six-track EP from Monique Ortiz, featuring collaborations with notable Electronic/Dance composer and producer Hypno Soundsystem.

Hailed by some as the ‘Queen of Low Rock’ for her long-time association and collaborations with members of iconic band Morphine - and noted as one of the world’s premier rock bassists in the recent publication “Titans of Bass” - Monique Ortiz has often taken the path less traveled in her exploration of musical forms.

From her solo releases - as well as fronting indie bands Bourbon Princess and Alien Knife Fight - the music of Monique Ortiz has long attracted press attention and a loyal listening audience, particularly in US music hotspots like Boston and Austin, and also in throughout Eastern Europe.

With the “Dapper” EP, Ortiz is paired with veteran British composer and producer Hypno Soundsystem (Darren Chorley), resulting in a stunning electronic dance turn, highlighted by both the title track and the thoroughly modern house “B-side”, “In the Name of Love”.

Available in digital and CD-single formats, the six tracks on “Dapper” represent an unexpected turn for an established and acclaimed indie artist – and the results are sure to garner DJ chart and playlist attention this summer.

“Dapper” by Monique Ortiz featuring Hypno Soundsystem will be released on digital and CD-single formats June 8, 2024.
